Sir:

The attached PTO Form 1449 identifies the PCT publication, WO 9920720, which is the counterpart of the U.S. Trewella Patent No. 6,090,989. WO 9920720 was published 29 April 1999, less than one year before the filing date of this application.

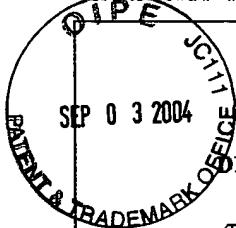

The PCT publication is not prior art under 35 USC 102(e) because the PCT application did not designate the United States. It is also not legally cognizable prior art under any other section of 35 USC 102. With respect to 35 USC 102(a), the accompanying declaration of this attorney shows that the business records of Mobil Oil Corporation establish that the invention was made before the publication date of WO 9920720
